JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

HONORABLE YVETTE KANE

NO. 1:CV-01-0930

FILED

JUN 19 2002

MARIE D'ANDREA, CLERK Per

PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR AMENDED CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

1. This matter has been placed on the Complex Case Management Track.
2. On February 5, 2002, this Court entered a Case Management Order imposing various deadlines. A true and correct copy of the order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."
3. Among the limits set by the February order are a closing date of June 28, 2002 for fact discovery, and an August 16, 2002 date for dispositive motions.
4. Since the entry of the order, the parties have cooperated in the taking of discovery, exchanging voluminous documents, and taking and/or scheduling depositions of parties and key witnesses.
5. Despite this cooperation, counsel for the parties concur that they will not be able to complete fact discovery by June 28, 2002.
6. Counsel's inability to complete discovery by June 28th is due partially to the schedules of witnesses, but more significantly to the complexity of the factual and legal issues involved in this case. In addition, the Court's resolution of certain motions pending before it may change the nature and scope of discovery which needs to be completed.

7. Counsel for the parties have conferred, and agree that an extension of approximately sixty days, until August 30, 2002 should be sufficient to complete the outstanding discovery.

8. Because fact discovery obviously affects the ability of the parties to complete the other pretrial requirements set by the order, they ask the Court to permit a proportionate extension of them, as well.¹

9. This is the first request for an extension; granting it would work no prejudice on any party, and would serve the interests of justice.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs ask the Court to grant their unopposed motion.

Respectfully submitted,

Gerald J. Williams, Esquire

¹In their proposed order, plaintiffs have left blank the dates for the pretrial and settlement conference, and for the trial, so that the Court might set those dates at its convenience.

b. Motions in limine and supporting briefs shall be filed no later than November 1, 2002.

IV. PRETRIAL MATTERS

a. Each party shall file on or before November 15, 2002 a pretrial memorandum in conformity with the local rules. Failure to timely file pretrial memoranda will result in an appropriate sanction. Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(f).

b. If counsel file trial briefs they must be filed by noon, two (2) working days prior to commencement of the listed trial date.

c. Trials will commence following the completion of jury selections. Counsel should note that criminal matters take priority and may delay the beginning of the civil trial list. Unless otherwise ordered, the cases will be tried in order of the docket numbers, with the earliest docket numbers going first and continuing to the most recent docket number. Non-jury matters will be tried last. Counsel should be aware that settlements, etc., will often reduce the actual number of cases for trial as the date approaches, and counsel should be prepared to go to trial on 24 hours notice. Counsel may contact the court one week prior to the scheduled jury selection to determine the approximate starting date. However, counsel should be aware that the trial list may change drastically; therefore, counsel shall be prepared to go to trial at any point during the trial term.

b. If the parties intend to use depositions at trial in place of live testimony, they shall review the depositions prior to the time of trial. If there are objections which cannot be resolved among counsel, said objections and copies of the relevant depositions shall be submitted to the court at least fifteen (15) days prior to trial. c. If a party intends to introduce 15 or more exhibits into evidence, that party shall provide the court with two copies of all exhibits in 3-ring binders at the beginning of that party's case.

d. Videotape equipment shall be set up in the courtroom prior to the commencement of trial in the morning, if its use is anticipated in the morning, or during the lunch break, if its use is anticipated in the afternoon.

e. Whenever any civil action scheduled for jury trial is settled or otherwise disposed of in advance of the actual trial, jurors' costs, including mileage and per diem, shall be assessed equally against the parties unless the Clerk's Office at the place the trial is to be held is notified of the settlement in sufficient time to permit the Clerk to advise the jurors that their attendance will not be necessary. Notice to such Clerk's Office before 2:00 p.m. on the last business day preceding the day on which the trial of the action is to start shall be adequate for such purpose.
